

MAKE YOUR HEALTH MESSAGE ROCK!

HealthRock® founder creates original songs
for industry product launches, health and public awareness campaigns, PR, sales support, and more!

music composed by Mache Seibel, MD, aka DOCROCK™

Commissioned works and existing music library available for licensing

Award-winning physician and composer Dr. Mache Seibel sets health education to music and song for one very good reason: Audiences tune in. Music makes health information more memorable, enjoyable, and actionable. So whether you choose from among more than 100 recorded tunes, or you want him to create an original song perfectly suited to your needs, DocRock's music delivers your vital health message to your audience in a format that gets their attention and stays with them long after the music fades.

HealthRock music inspires, motivates, and educates audiences to make better health choices!

DocRock's songs:

- Create buzz and interest around your products, services, campaigns, and more
- Overcome health illiteracy and make your message easy to understand
- Complement your other promotional efforts, including viral marketing!
- Draw more people to your website—excellent for pod casts or mobile devices

*"Music makes people more receptive to learning and helps increase retention.
HealthRock is a uniquely brilliant format for sharing health messages."*

—Mehmet Oz, MD, Professor and Vice Chairman of Surgery, Columbia University, and Health Expert, The Oprah Winfrey Show

DocRock uses his extensive medical knowledge, life experience, and tune-crafting ability to create specific, targeted songs that simplify complicated topics, raise consciousness, and make your message memorable.
